Good Afternoon, Ali Perrin,

Thank you for contacting our office! Upon viewing your eMaryland Marketplace Advantage (eMMA) account for Ruff Nex, LLC, it was found that your application was successfully submitted and you were approved to become a Small Business Reserve (SBR) Program participant. Congratulations!

In regards to your inquiry, please be aware that Small Business Reserve (SBR) certificates are not issued to vendors. Note that if any entity requests proof of your SBR certification, you can screenshot the "SBR Certification #" (as listed in the "Company Info" section) & the approved "Status"/"Document Date"/"Expiration Date" of your 'SBR Application' (as provided in the "Documents" section) and forward this information to the entity.

In addition, be aware that you can visit the eMaryland Marketplace Advantage (eMMA- <https://emma.maryland.gov/>) website to access the public "Vendor Search". You can select the "Vendor Search" link, enter the name of your business within the "Company Name" field and click on the "Search" button. Note that information pertaining to your business will appear, including your "SBR Certification #" and "Expiration Date". You can screenshot this information and forward it to the entity requesting proof of your SBR certification. Or you can provide the eMMA website to the entity to conduct the "Vendor Search" and obtain your SBR certification information.

If you should have any additional questions, do not hesitate to contact me.

Have a nice day,

Tanita Johnson
